

Bereavement

Misha's father was diagnosed with cancer two years ago and became increasingly disabled until his death last week. Misha, an only child, has been very much involved in caring for her father, as her mother worked full time. Her mother has been in contact with the school and wants Misha to come back to school as soon as possible (especially as she must return to full-time work herself) and join the after-school club. Misha doesn't want to come back to school, as she has few friends and says she can't stop crying. Misha's teacher has asked the PSA to offer some support to them.

1. Meeting in school with mum, daughter, Head of Year and Home School Link.
2. Referral to CEIT team and PSP
3. MacMillan Counselling?
Click Sargeant?
4. School nurse – depression? (CAMHS?)
5. HSL maintain frequent contact with pupil and mother
6. Does the pupil have an interest? Is there a club tht she would like to join/might enjoy?
